

In this folder we are challenged to confront the greatest fear of men—to be fully human and alive--utilizing his own great potential.

Pointers for Folder 17

This folder helps the individual to look deeper into all aspects of our life and of our potentials. It challenges us to use our imagination and be able to feel and see all the good things that may have been hidden. It challenges us to use our imagination to separate what seems to be real and what is superficial.

As we read the bible, we can peel back the layers of the stories that hold new meanings to our spiritual understanding.

With our imagination we can certainly change the way we think about ourselves and we can dare to hope for a better way of life.

Let us invite ourselves and the people we serve to ask the same questions from two different points of view. For example, on one hand the three simple questions: Do I believe in God? What do I want from God? What am I willing to do for God? While on the other hand, does God believe in me? What does God want me to do? What is God willing to do for me?

It is important to entertain these points of view to reveal to me what I truly believe. These questions will help us to clarify the true beliefs that may be hidden in ourselves. So I ask, do I truly believe in the belief that I say I believe in?
